Author, Leadership Coach and CEO of InteGreat Leadership

Randy Gravitt is one of the most sought after speakers in the industry today. His books, talks and blogs have inspired leaders all around the world to live a life of authenticity and become an integrity driven leader in all aspects of life.

Randy Gravitt has invested his life in helping people grow. His passion is to help next generation leaders understand the importance of living a life of integrity in order to maximize their influence. He has worked in education, both as a teacher and coach, served for over fifteen years on the staff of one of the largest churches in the Atlanta area, and been a public speaker and writer. In 2009, Randy founded i2i Leadership, where he encourages leaders to remain character based through his speaking and writing. He has mentored dozens of leaders through personal coaching.

Randy has written 30 Days to a More Godly Man, 30 Days to Financial Focus, Finding Your Way, and UNSTUCK. He enjoys teaching on the topics of leadership, marriage and family, and health and fitness.

As a communicator, Randy has spoken to hundreds of audiences around the world. He has taught in the U.S., Europe, Asia, Africa, and South America. Randy has presented to corporations such as Chick-fil-A, as well as Fellowship of Christian Athletes, college and professional sports teams, and taught life and leadership skills in both private and public schools across the country. His audiences are drawn to his encouragement and motivational style of speaking aimed at bringing about transformation.

Randy enjoys marathon and trail running, reading, traveling, and serving as a community coach for various sports teams in his local area.

He and his wife Laura have been married for over twenty-five years and live in Sharpsburg, Georgia. They have four daughters, Hannah, Sarah, Rebekah, and Katherine.

What Others Are Saying

Greatness + Integrity = InteGreat

"Thank you Randy for sharing with our Leadership group and my Coaching Staff on numerous occasions during the 2013 – 2015 Seasons. Your engaging style along with your 'down home' humor impacted and empowered all of us. From team bonding, to individual blue prints, your leadership experience and your perspective has added great value to the Pirate Organization." Clint Hurdle, Pittsburgh Pirates

"The tools Randy shared will give you a better life, a better family, and make you a better human being. After decades of studying leadership, this was the best day of training I have experienced. It was incredible. I just loved it." - Howard Behar, Former President, Starbucks

"When it comes to leadership training and putting together a blueprint for an organization to set itself up for record setting success, Randy Gravitt tops the list. He is relatable, engaging, and inspiring. I'm blessed and fortunate to be able to call him a friend and a mentor." Dwaine Osborne, Heach Coach CU
